THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God sent his Son so that through him the world might be saved

First Reading: Ex 34:4-6.8-9

Responsorial Psalm Don 3:52-56

Second Reading: 2Cor 13:11-13

Gospel: Jn 3:16-18

HOLY TRINITY: The Holy Trinity is the way we describe the inner nature of Almighty God. We could know nothing of how God is in himself – only his external actions and impact on our lives – if he had not chosen to reveal himself to us. There are glimpses of God as three in one in the Old Testament, e.g. when the three heavenly messengers come to Abraham at the oak of Mamre but it is Jesus who reveals God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit – not only in his command to the disciples to baptise all nations at the end of St Matthew’s Gospel, but also in the way he speaks of his relationship with the Father and the promise of the Holy Spirit in St John’s Gospel. It took the Christian community three hundred years of reflection and discussion to come to a settled view on what this means and to put it into the words of the Creed of Nicaea and Constantinople that we say at Mass every Sunday. Inevitably not everyone accepted this consensus. Arius and his followers (including today’s Jehovah’s Witnesses) rejected this as a challenge to the oneness of God and held that only the Father was truly God. It is hard to keep the balance right and we can easily use ‘God’ as equivalent to ‘Father’ when all prayer is directed at least implicitly to the Trinity as a whole – usually to the Father, through the Son, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

ANNIVERSARIES: Please remember Brian Vanson, Pat Vallely, Margaret Flaherty, Florence Wood, Lancelot Hill, James Mullen, Fr Edward Thomas, Edward Farley and Pamela Coverley whose anniversaries occur at this time.

PRAYER BREAKFAST - Coggeshall: This Saturday 8.00 a.m. - 9.00 a.m. at 5A St Peter’s Road – please sign the list for catering purposes.

PRAYER NEEDS: Please continue to pray for those parishioners who are sick especially Hilda Hawes, Daniel McDermott, Pam Loweth, Bill Sullivan, Sheila Faulkner, Hanni Kyan, Danny Mullane, Sarah Costello, Donovan Buahin, Mike Gibson, Maria Hoeft, Dwight Page, Rebecca Dillon, Brian Harper, Eddie Price, Anne Entwistle, Audrey Holden, Eric Bell, Paul Brittain, Audrey Hopwood, Karen Kelly, and any unknown to us. If anybody knows of names to be added or deleted from the sick list please let Fr Gordon know.

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOOD WISHES: To our First Communion children. Today at 11.00 a.m. Mass the following children will receive the Lord for the first time: Adam Antczak, Emily Frost, Beth Montgomery, Rory Perry, Felix Ruiz and Nikhilsam Sabu. We also congratulate Martin Birch and Sabrina de Brito who were married at Kelvedon last Saturday and Samuel Joe Maxted baptised the same day.

CORPUS CHRISTI: The feast of Corpus Christi is kept next Sunday. There will be the usual procession in honour of the Blessed Sacrament at the end of the 11.00 a.m. Mass, with Benediction in the garden (weather permitting). I would encourage the First Communion children in particular to take part in this. If you cannot stay on for the twenty minutes or so involved, please feel free to leave once the procession has left the church building. Flower petals for scattering would be most welcome.

ECUMENICAL PRAYER SERVICE - Kelvedon & Feering: This month’s service will be led by Pastor Paul Brown but take place at the URC due to building work at Feering Mission: 4.00 p.m.

FUNERAL: The Requiem Mass for Hilda Pinder takes place on Monday 1.30 p.m. at Kelvedon followed by burial in Kelvedon cemetery. Mrs Pinder was Fr Thomas’s housekeeper.

MASS VARIATIONS: I have to take part in the Cathedral House annual staff outing on Thursday, wearing my hat as ‘Moderator of the Curia’, so Mass this week will be at 8.00 a.m. On Saturday Mass will be at 9.30 a.m. because of the Fete.

ECUMENICAL NEWS: Rev Rosemary Morton, curate at St Peter’s, Coggeshall will be ordained priest in the Church of England next weekend. Please remember her in your prayers. She will celebrate her first Eucharist at St Peter’s on Wednesday 29th June at 7.30 p.m.

TIPTREE YOUTH NEWS: You will be pleased to hear that the trust set up by the Churches to employ a youth worker, along the lines of Coggeshall, has been successful in its grant application and has secured £70,000 over the next three years. Fund raising will still be needed as the cost will actually be about £90,000. Each Church is contributing £1,000 a year and the parish council will also be making a donation. There will be more news in September. The first step will be to draw up a job specification for the youth worker. We are looking for a small office in Tiptree for the youth worker to use. If anyone knows of premises with a room that might be suitable and available please let me know.

BRADWELL PILGRIMAGE: ‘Walking with the Word’ Saturday 2nd July. Meet at St Thomas Church, Bradwell at 11.00 a.m. and walk to St Peter’s on the Wall. For details see www.bradwellpilgrimage.webs.com

EVANGELIUM COURSE ON THE FAITH: Topic this Friday will be the Sacraments of Initiation - Baptism and Confirmation.

TIPTREE CARNIVAL: Kingsland Church will be organizing a float for Tiptree Carnival on Saturday 25th June commemorating 400 years of the King James Bible. They need some volunteers to act as a ‘listening crowd’ on the float. The procession leaves Thurstable School at 2.00 p.m. There will be a static display on the field 3.00-7.00 p.m. and again an audience would be welcome – a crowd draws a crowd. If you are interested contact Jonathan Greenwood jonathan-greenwood@tiscali.co.uk.
