26th Sunday of the Year

Good things come your way, just as bad things came the way of Lazurus.

Now he is being comforted here while you are in agony.

First Reading	Amos 6:1.4-7
Responsorial Psalm	Ps 145:6-10.R.v.2
Second Reading	St Paul to Timothy 6:11-16
Gospel	Luke 16:19-31

26TH SUNDAY OF YEAR: Today's Gospel is third of three lengthy parables that speak to us in different ways of the importance of using God's material blessings wisely. Two weeks ago we heard how the Prodigal Son wasted his assets. Last week the unjust steward was praised for his astuteness in turning things to his advantage. Today we hear the story of the rich man ('Dives' in Latin) and Lazarus. The rich man had no excuse for ignoring Lazarus. Not only was he wealthy, he had to pass Lazarus every day. He could not claim to be unaware of his needs. They just did not impinge on his conscience. He did not abuse Lazarus or treat him badly. It was a sin of omission. The parable reminds us that what we do not do is as much a choice as what we do. Are there areas of neglect in our lives? Today let us stop to think who may suffer as a result of our negligence. At least we have a chance to start making amends. There will be no personal warning from the Lord – he has already spoken to us through the Scriptures.

THE BIGGER BREAKFAST: We host the monthly Prayer Breakfast for Kelvedon and Feering this Saturday 8.00-9.00 a.m. All welcome. Do join us in prayer for the needs of the local community.

WE REGRET: To announce the death of Mrs Bernadette McCann of West End Road, Tip-tree. Funeral details will be in next week's Newsletter.

MISSION FOLLOW UP: On Wednesday 6th October two members of the SION Community will be joining the Parish pastoral Council after the evening Mass to review our Mission and explore ways ahead for the parish. We could do with your input too! If you have any thoughts or hopes to contribute please do come along.

CONFERENCE OF JUDICIAL VICARS: The senior staff from the different Tribunals of the diocese of England and Wales are meeting in Rome this week and will be visiting the different Vatican departments that we relate to. For this reason there will be no Mass Monday to Friday. In an emergency please contact Fr David Prior at Witham (01376 512219).

PRAYER NEEDS: Please continue to pray for those parishioners who are sick especially Danny Mullane, Sarah Costello, Dorothy Dodd, Donovan Buahin, Mike Gibson, Elliot Chisholm, Maria Hoefft, Dwight Page, Rebecca Dillon, Sophie, Brian Harper, Eddie Price, Anne Entwistle, Audrey Holden, May Brown, Eric Bell, Paul Brittain, Audrey Hopwood, Karen Kelly, Daniel McDermott and any unknown to us. If anybody knows of names to be added to or deleted from the sick list please could you let Fr Gordon know or Pat Richardson (01376 570806) email pat-dave@lineone.net.

ADMISSIONS – PRIEST'S REFERENCE FORM: If you wish to apply for a place in a Catholic school for September 2011, you need to obtain a copy of the above form which is being distributed through the Catholic schools. Alternatively you can find the form on the Diocesan Website under "schools". The Diocese offers the following advice:

1. You can download the Priests' Reference form directly. You need to fill in one copy of Part A and take it to the appropriate Priest (preferably the Parish Priest of the Church where you regularly attend Mass).
2. With this Part A you need to have as many copies of part B as the number of schools to which you are applying. You need to write the name of the school to which you are applying on the back of each Part B. For example, if you are applying to 3 Catholic schools, you need to give 3 copies of part B to the Priest. You must write on the back of each copy of Part B the name of one of the schools. The Priest will then send the Part B copies to the relevant schools.
3. You should also give to the Priest a list of all the Catholic schools to which you are applying.
